

WHAT YOU'LL BE DOING

- You will coach our clients in our full-scale 737ng simulator and have fun introducing them to the cockpit, guiding them from takeoff through landing, explaining the aircraft's systems, and answering their questions
- > Engage with our clients before and after each flight session
- Set up the flightdeck between flight sessions
- Create flight plans for our customizable flight sessions
- Accurately follow detailed startup/shutdown instructions for the simulator and its components
- > When not in a flight session, cover front desk duties like sales transactions and phone calls
- Light cleaning duties of the cockpit and our facility
- Strong aviation knowledge and a passion for sharing it with others
- Excellent team member skills everything is based on giving our clients a First-Class experience
- A "people person" with the ability to communicate clearly with our clients and fellow staff members
- > Detail–oriented, able to follow instructions to the letter
- Willingness to learn and grow
- Enough basic computer literacy to navigate our web-based booking system

Availability to work at least 15 hours per week, including days, nights, weekends, minor holidays, and the days immediately before and after major holidays

Student, Private, or Commercial Pilot License

Past, current, or planned future career in aviation

Familiarity with some of the software we use such as Sim-Avionics, Lockheed Martin P3d, and Navi graph, MSFS202, DCS, Sim brief General computer skills at a lowest-tier helpdesk level

What's in it for you??

Competitive Hourly wages along with Monthly bonus opportunities!

Accrued Paid Time Off

401K

Major Holidays off: New Years Day, Memorial Day, 4th of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas Day

Ready for Take-off with a fun rewarding place to work? Then please submit your resume on our Career's page of our website www.extremeflightsimulation.com

We look forward to hearing from you!

Best Regards

Extreme Flight Simulation Management Team